The Cardinal's habitat includes woodlands, gardens, shrublands and wetlands.

...AND OTHER COOL THINGS TO DO OUTSIDE

FAMILY & CHILDREN ACTIVITIES at Planting Fields Arboretum

Tuesday, April 3rd at 10:00 a.m., Story, Stroll & Craft - Come listen to the story "I Like Myself!" by Karen Beaumont. Then head off on a nature hunt to collect earth-made art materials through the forest. Create your own earth-inspired self-portrait.

Wednesday, June 27th at 10:00 a.m., Walk and Leaf Printing Craft - Join us in exploring nature's beautiful patterns and get creative printing leaf patterns of your own.

Thursday, August 23rd at 10:00 a.m., Build a Fairy House - The mysteries of the forest are known only to the fairies: come create houses for them using natural materials in the forest.

POP-UP BIKE TOURS AND PLEIN AIR!

Join us for one or several pop-up bike tours and plein air painting workshops on the beautiful north shore. Please keep an eye out for emails announcing times and locations.

YOGA

Wednesday, June 20th at 6:30 p.m. - Enjoy this Summer Solstice Eve restorative yoga session. Slow down and stretch out while listening to the soothing sounds of nature at Wawapek.

Additional yoga sessions to be announced.

KAYAK TOURS

Thursday, July 12th at 6:00 p.m. - Explore the cultural and natural beauty of Cold Spring Harbor at sunset by kayak.

Saturday, September 8th at 4:00 p.m. - Check out lower Hempstead Harbor by kayak. We'll set out from North Hempstead Beach Park, formerly known as Bar Beach.

2018 WALKS IN THE WOODS

The North Shore Land Alliance Walks in the Woods nature education program is a series of free, educational and interactive explorations. They are designed to guide visitors of all ages through Long Island parks and nature preserves, many of which are off the beaten path, for investigation while educating them about the wildlife and plants that call them home. Participants also gain an understanding and appreciation of local land conservation and its benefits to our food and water supplies and wildlife habitats and its connection to the strength and health of our communities.

WINTER

Saturday, February 10th, 2:00 p.m., Amanda Furcall, Wawapek, Cold Spring Harbor - This family-friendly nature-journaling program will include indoor and outdoor activities led by our associate director of stewardship, who is also a very talented artist and writer!

Sunday, March 4th, 9:30 a.m., Stella Miller, Elizabeth A. Morton National Wildlife Refuge, Sag Harbor - We'll talk about winter birds and enjoy the company of hungry chickadees, nuthatches and tufted titmice that will avail themselves to us. Bird seed provided by Wild Birds Unlimited of Syosset.

SUMMER

Friday, June 29th, 7:00 p.m., Eric Powers, Blydenburgh County Park, Smithtown - We'll be starting not long before dusk to learn about bats before we see them on the trail!

Thursday, July 26th, 6:00 p.m., Mankh, Humes Japanese Stroll Garden, Mill Neck - Mankh, whose poetry and haiku are much loved, will lead a program in the legendary Stroll Garden - also much loved!

Saturday, August 18th, 10:00 a.m., Tim Dooley, Youngs Farm, Old Brookville - As harvest time approaches, this farm manager will lead us on a tour of one of Nassau County's most treasured farms.

SPRING

Saturday, March 31st, 11:00 a.m., To Be Determined. Check our website for update.

Saturday, April 28th, 8:00 a.m., Barbara Garriel, Humes Estate, Mill Neck - Veteran birder Barbara will lead a spring migration walk at this special property. Some of the most active locations for birds may surprise you!

Sunday, May 20th, 10:00 a.m., John Turner, Makamah Nature Preserve, Fort Salonga - John will lead us through this fascinating suburban wetland preserve to explore the plants and wildlife that live here.

FALL

Saturday, September 22nd, 2:00 p.m., Yvonne Berger, Shore Road Sanctuary, Cold Spring Harbor (and possibly Centre Island Beach) - In this photography walk, Yvonne will introduce us to the tricks of the trade during the Monarch butterfly migration.

Sunday, October 7th, 4:15 p.m., Peter Martin, Jones Beach West End, Merrick - Land and shorebirds galore, abundant insect watching and a delightful sunset (or storm clouds or rainbow?) are on the agenda this fall at this world class nature site.

Saturday, October 20th, 10:00 a.m., Andy Greller, Cranberry Bog County Nature Preserve, Riverhead - Explore this magnificent 165-acre preserve, complete with abundant fresh water, a diversity of wildlife and carnivorous plants, when it is at its most beguiling.

Saturday, November 3rd, 11:00 a.m., Russell Burke, Fox Hollow Preserve, Laurel Hollow - How do Long Island's frogs, toads and salamanders get through the winter? Russell will explain overwintering strategies on an exploration of this much-loved preserve.

Sunday, December 2nd, 11:00 a.m., Jane Jackson, Oaces Preserve, Muttontown - This woodland gem's undulating hills, tucked away in obscurity behind suburban landscapes, have managed to maintain a healthy population of native groundcovers, shrubs and trees that we'll explore.
