II. Two nights in Bangkok at the luxury Rosewood Hotel and four nights at the SIX SENSES RESORT, YAO NOI, THAILAND - Two people will enjoy Thailand at its very best.

Spend two days in Bangkok at the city's most luxurious hotel, the Rosewood. Must-see activities and sites in Bangkok include the poetically-named Wat Arun, or Temple of the Dawn, a beautiful, ornate structure overlooking the Chao Phraya; Wat Pho, home to a giant Buddha and perhaps one of the most renowned temples in Thailand; the Grand Palace, which once housed Thailand's kings; and the famous floating markets, where merchants in canoes sell fresh, natural produce. Bangkok has become quite a foody city with many Michelin rated restaurants like Gaggam, Bo.lan and the Issaya Siamese Club.

Then fly to Phuket where you'll be greeted at the airport and escorted by a long-tail boat to Yao Noi, situated among the awe-inspiring limestone pinnacles of Phang Nga. The Six Senses Spa, an ultra-luxurious resort praised for its breathtaking views, deserted beaches and most extraordinary service, is nestled into a forested hillside overlooking the bay and styled after a traditional Asian long house. You will stay in one of a series of private cottages, each complete with an infinity pool. Attention has been given to every detail from the natural materials used in the buildings to the local organic food served to guests.

And, there's lots to do from the excitement of rock climbing and speedboat rides, to biking to secret beaches for a picnic while passing cockerels, water buffalo and farmers along the way. There are excursions to nearby islands like James Bond Island (location for Man with the Golden Gun) as well as yoga, Thai cooking classes, batik painting, snorkeling and kayaking to grottoes and sea caves (just like Roger Moore and Britt Ekland did in the Bond movie).

Travel period falls entirely between October 15, 2019 to September 30, 2020 with the following blackout period December 20, 2019 - January 10, 2020 January 24 - February 29, 2020 April 6-12, 2020

1. The National Links, Southampton, NY - Unaccompanied foursome and lunch. Ranked #8 by Golf Digest. A marvelous collection of holes. As the 2013 Walker Cup reminded us, Macdonald's versions are superior in strategy to the originals, which is why National's design is still studied by golf architects today.

2. Friar's Head, Riverhead, NY – Unaccompanied foursome. Ranked #15 by Golf Digest. *Some holes can be found in the breathtaking sand dunes perched 200 feet above Long Island Sound, and other holes on an ordinary potato field to the south. ## X. TWO EXCEPTIONAL CASES OF WINES

One Case of 2012 Pavillon Rouge du Château Margaux

One Case of 2012 Pavillon Rouge du Château Margaux

The 2012 is a blend of 63% cabernet sauvignon, 33% merlot, 1% cabernet franc and 3% petit verdot.

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate gave it 91 points and describes it as follows.

“This is a crisp, red-fruited wine with acidity and fresh tannins. It's lost the austerity it showed at barrel tasting and has become surprisingly fresh, only showing its depths and concentration as it unfolds. The texture is smooth, soft with its firmer tannins very much in the background. It's likely to develop quickly.”

Starting Bid - $2,000 each case
